Who can use FansyMe?

General Questions · https://help.fansyme.com/docs/general/who-can-use-fansyme/

This post is also available in: Deutsch (German)

To sign up for FansyMe, you need to create a User account. Just give your email, a username, and a password. Or, you can use your Twitter or Google account. Make sure your password is unique and meets our technical requirements.

To register:

- You must be at least 18 years old, with proof required.
- If your country or State/province requires a higher age for legal contracts, you need to meet that.
- You must be allowed by your country or State/province laws to join FansyMe, see its Content, and use its features.
- You can't be a convicted sex offender.

If you don't meet these requirements, you can't use FansyMe. For more information please refer to our Terms & Services.